FURTHER INFORMATION

Illness

- If your child feels unwell in the morning please keep him/her at home; do not send them to school.
- If your child suffers from an illness that needs medication to be administered at school – please ask for the ‘Administer Medication’ form and return to the school as soon as possible.

Allergies

- Please inform the school if your child has any allergies.

Breakfast Club

- The Breakfast club will resume as normal on September 6th. Children must be escorted by an adult to the school’s reception area and registered daily for Breakfast Club.

School uniform

- Pupils are encouraged to wear school uniform and P.E. kit in the school colour when returning to school. Remember to put your child’s name on every item of clothing and on coats and bags.

P.E. Lessons

- P.E. lessons will mostly be held outdoors therefore pupils need to wear suitable clothing. Timetable to follow.

Parcio

- We kindly remind you not to park at the bus stop, in front of the school gates or in the staff car park. This information should be shared with any adult bringing to / collecting your child from school.
- In order to ease parking arrangements - we kindly ask you to leave immediately after you’ve taken / collected your child to / from the class. This is to ensure adequate parking space is available.
